NEXT FRIDAY

The Soldier Boys Will Start
For St. Louis.

Each Regiment Will Remain in Camp For Ten Days.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 23.—Plans are being made for the encampment of the members of the Kentucky State Guard at the World's Fair grounds in St. Louis, and while no orders have been issued, it is probable that the troops will start about September 1. The Third Regiment will go first and remain about ten days. They will be followed by the Second regiment, who will stay about the same length of time, while the First regiment will probably not leave for St. Louis before September 22.

It is expected that the encampment will be the largest and most successful that has ever been held by the Kentucky troops, as the majority of the soldiers desire to see the fair.

Col. J. H. Henry says the Hopkinsville company, and other companies of his regiment, will start for St. Louis next Friday, September 2.

Col. Henry will be accompanied by Mrs. Henry. It is expected that most of the other officers will take their wives.

MODEL SALOON.

Louisville Minister Severely Condemns It and Says Home Should Be Club.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 22.—Rev. H. M. McLaughlin preached at the Stuart Robinson Memorial church yesterday morning in opposition to the idea of the model saloon recently established under the patronage of Bishop Potter in New York city. Mr. McLaughlin took the position that the so-called respectable saloon is really the worst of all, its existence induces the people to drink therein who would not otherwise enter a saloon.

Mr. McLaughlin combatted the idea of the saloon proving a club for the poor man, and argued that the home should be made the club and the money spent in the saloon used to make the home more attractive.

WORK BEGUN

On the Home Telephone Line to Fayette.

Line Staked Off And Poles Dropped Along the Road.

The Home Telephone Company has begun work on the line to Lafayette, via Newstead. The poles are being dropped from Newstead and the surveyors have staked out the line most of the way. The people of that part of the county are planning for good telephone service, such as the Home is giving in this city, and the prospects are that they will soon have it. Manager Hoge says the line will be open for business before "the frost is on the pumpkin vines." A large list of subscribers has been worked up in the Newstead neighborhood and the secret look-out system to be put in will appeal to the support of every man who uses a telephone.

At the same time the Home company has bought the Haley's Mill line formerly having a toll station in Anderson & Fowler's drug store. Esq. H. C. Halsey has worked up a big list in that territory, which is not penetrated by any other line and these phones will be connected by September 1st, or a part of them at least. The exchange at Fairview will be put in with 50 subscribers to start with and the country supplied as rapidly as possible. This plant here was being completed in 100 days and the poles can all be put up in six months.

Completion of the line to Lafayette will connect with the Clarksville exchange and the Haley's Mill line, which reach 20 miles to the

MRS. MITCHELL DEAD.

Passed Quietly Away at Her Home in Sturgis Wednesday Night.

Mrs. Laura Williams Mitchell, wife of Mr. W. E. Mitchell, of Sturgis, Ky., died Wednesday night after a lingering illness of consumption. Mrs. Mitchell was about 40 years of age and was a member of the Presbyterian church. The remains were brought to this city yesterday afternoon and laid to rest in Hopewell Cemetery.

Mrs. Mitchell formerly lived in this county, but moved with her husband to Sturgis nearly two years ago, from Herndon, where Mr. Mitchell was engaged in business for several years. The news of her death will be learned with much regret by a large number of relatives and friends all over the county. Mrs. Mitchell was a most excellent christian woman and was loved by all who knew her. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, Miss Katie Mitchell, a former pupil of Beth Female College, and two sons.

HEROIC DEED.

Miss Blanche Buckner, a Former Paducah Girl, Saves Man
From Drowning.

The New York World gives an account of a daring dive overboard and rescue of a drowning sailor boy by Miss Blanche Buckner, of Louisville, near Boston, Mass.

Miss Buckner was on board the United States ship Hartford with her mother and several other young ladies at the time, and the party were being entertained by the officers. Midshipman Lawton happened to fall overboard and Miss Buckner sprang to the rescue. Being an expert swimmer, she assisted Lawton to keep his head above water until a boat reached the spot. The crew of the Hartford gave Miss Buckner a grand demonstration as she was brought in. Miss Buckner is now with the "Isle of Spice" company. She is a native of Paducah and well known here.—Register.

BACK FROM REUNION

Prof. and Mrs. C. H. Dietrich Meet
With 840 Relatives.

Prof. and Mrs. C. H. Dietrich have returned from a reunion of the Dietrich family at Kutztown, Pa., which was attended by 842 Dietrichs. The reunion was held August 13 and following it they made a visit to Berks county relatives, at Reading. This county is the home of more Dietrichs than any other county in the United States, all of them being Democrats. In one precinct at one election 87 Dietrichs voted the Democratic ticket. Under Lincoln's first call in 1861, for volunteers, 40 Dietrichs enlisted. The Dietrichs have spread all over the United States, being noted for long life and large families. There are 3,000 in Pennsylvania alone and six states and Canada were represented at the gathering. Prof. Dietrich found several relatives bearing his full name. One of them, Senator C. H. Dietrich, of Nebraska, was not present.

Lawson Dietrich was elected president of the association formed and Prof. C. H. Dietrich was made assistant secretary. A paper read by W. J. Dietrich traced the family back to Theodorich the Great, born 451, King of the Ostrogoths. A souvenir badge was also prepared giving the German coat of arms of the family. Berks county, the home of the original settlers, was the native county of two of Kentucky's greatest men Daniel Boone and William Henry Harrison.

"One dollar," he asked. The doctor drew a pocket watch and looked from Mrs. Motley to Mrs. Brown as he hesitated. "I will not stand on the doctor's hands," she spoke Irish some of the good body who lived in the basement took in the situation at that point, and she said, as she put her hand under her apron: "Don't bother about having a bill brought, Mrs. Brown; it'll delay the doctor. How much is it, kind sir?"

"One dollar,"

"It's worth it, sir; here you are and thanks to you for your kindness," uttered the fine old woman, as she handed out a bill and bowed.

"I'm sorry for the world, and you sorry for the money and wake-up and kaffe and the snore! between you and me?"

"If you say it is right, Mrs. Murphy."

"It is right—because yer mother or must not worry, and she must live and get strong and well."

"I will do as you say, you are so kind—"

St. Louis, Aug. 15.—Beginning August 22 and continuing until November 12, there will be held on the World's Fair grounds the greatest live stock show in history. More than a quarter of a million dollars have been set apart for prizes and there will be exhibitors from every state in the Union and nearly every nation in the world.

Dates for the exhibition of stock are so arranged that each class will have a season and something will be continuously on display. Horses, asses and mules will be exhibited from August 22, to Saturday, September 3. Cattle will be exhibited from Monday, September 12, to Saturday, September 24. Sheep and swine will occupy attention from Monday, October 3, to Saturday, October 15. Poultry, pigeons and pet stock will be exhibited from Monday, October 24, to Saturday, November 6. Dogs and cats will be exhibited from Monday, October 24, to Friday, October 28. The southern breeding cattle exhibit will continue from Monday, November 7, to Saturday, November 12, and on the same days there will be displays of cattle in carload lots.

Col. Charles F. Mills, chief of the Department of Live Stock of the World's Fair, has completed his selection of the show yard staff. The appointments are as follows: General superintendent, J. B. Dismore; of Nebraska, superintendent of horse and cattle, C. R. Thomas, Missouri; superintendent of sheep, John L. Thompson, Indiana; superintendent of swine, George S. Price, of Iowa; superintendent of poultry, T. E. Orr, Pennsylvania; superintendent of pigeons, H. Thomas, of Maryland; superintendent of dogs, A. P. Vredenburgh, of New York; marshal, H. H. Hilde, of Michigan; assistant marshal, A. P. Madden, of Iowa; secretary, Fred H. Raskin, of Illinois.

The men composing the above staff are all widely known in live stock circles throughout the United States, and have them have been connected with every stock show given in the country in recent years. The Live Stock Forum and Judges will be under the immediate protection of the show yard staff and every safeguard against interference with the show in his examinations will be provided.

Arrangements have been made by the National Horse Breeders' association for public sales of horses during the period of the horse and dog Fair grounds. The highest class of horses has been assured for the sale, and there will be no lack of spirited competition for buyers from all live stock-breeding districts of the world.

FAIR MANUFACTURING COINS

Gold Pieces Comparing with California Quarters and Halfers Are Made at the Exposition.

The smallest amount of gold that has ever been issued in the form of coins were the quarters and half-dollars issued by private gold producers of California for a few years following the gold fields of '49. These were in a measure a necessity for the reason that small currency was then decidedly scarce on the Pacific coast. These diminutive gold coins have proved in recent years a decided curiosity to many and have advanced in value to about 500 per cent.

The interest found for these small gold pieces has prompted the Warren Zerbe, chief of the World's Fair's souvenir coin department, to privately issue gold pieces comparable with the California gold quarters and halfers, as commemorations for the Louisiana souvenir gold dollar. They are coined from gold mined in the Louisiana territory and in design are typical of the territory and its centennial celebration. The obverse bears a fleur-de-lis with "L. E. F." in the extended point; surrounding are 14 stars representing the 14 Louisiana states and the date 1904. The reverse is inscribed with the fractions $\frac{1}{4}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$ surrounded by Louisiana gold.

In connection with the Louisiana souvenir gold dollar these diminutive gold pieces are sold at face value, the set of three pieces commanding $3.75, and are obtainable direct from the exposition coin department. The dollars, the price originally established for the Louisiana souvenir gold dollar, is and will positively be maintained.

Rev. Adolphus Withers has been retired.

John L. Yantis spent the night
 with Judge Parker at Reopos
 Monday night.

Now that the little future czar
 has been christened, the fighting
 may be resumed.

Edouard Root emphatically refuses to be a candidate for governor of New York. Kibbe has a long head.

Statesboro, Georgia, has quieted down, but Cedarstown, in the same state, has had a nigger-burning.
 A rapist who assaulted a little white girl, was shot to death and his body burned on the public square.

Postmaster General Payne is liable to be brought into court on contempt proceedings, because he insulted a constable who served a subpoena on him.

Walter Wolfman, in the Chicago Record-Herald, says the state of New York is a very doubtful quantity in the coming election and that the Republicans are making their arrangements to get along without New York.

Attorney C. A. Radford, of Louisville, has called in Wadsworth, in which he holds that all the sureties posted are property within the meaning of the constitution and statutes of Kentucky and are subject to taxation on the hands of the holders at their cash surrender value.

Mrs. Florence Maybrick, recently released from an English prison,
 arrived on the S. S. Vaderland Monday morning. She gave out a statement to the press, thanking the American press and public for the interest taken in her. Her health is poor.

The idea advanced by Attorney General Hays that the life insurance man expects to leave his family when he is dead should be listed for taxation before the play becomes due, is certainly original,
 but we do not believe any client
 ever be made to see it that way.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than in all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J.
 Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and offers one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

 ledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c.

 stipation.

The attendance at the St. Louis fair is falling far behind the record of the Chicago fair for the first ninety days. The advertising has not been properly done. Asking free publication of prepared articles three or four columns long,
 that not one in a dozen country papers has the space to handle, is not the proper way to exploit the fair. A small paid advertisement in the papers, paid for if necessary,
 by cutting off useless salaries,
 would have brought far better results.

When we see from the manipulations of the Republicans in the Hunter Edwards contest what the Eleventh District Republicans do to each other, we can get some faint idea of what they do to the Democrats when a big majority is needed in that district, as was the case in 1899.

Bishop Potter has not only injured himself, but has done the cause of religion incalculable harm
 by his endorsement of an underground saloon in a filthy and lawless section of New York City.
 Church people generally should be thankful that they have to answer
 for the mistakes of but one Bishop entertaining the peculiar ideas of Bishop Potter.

PARKER PLEASED

With Plans and Prospects For Approaching Campaign.

Reopos, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Plans for the national campaign were before Judge Parker today by Delaney Nicoll, of New York, Vice Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who called at Reopos
 by invitation and who, with Mrs. Nicoll, spent the afternoon with the candidate and his family.
 Judge Parker approved everything that has been done and all that the committee has in contemplation.
 He was enthusiastic over the campaign work.

The report carried to Rosemont by Mr. Nicoll indicated the close of the Murphy-McCarren feud in greater New York. He said that the appointment of Victor J. Downgs as a member of the State Executive Committee and the head of a bureau of organization which will have charge of the city campaign, is satisfactory to Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, who will do his utmost for the success of the ticket.

THREE STRAIGHTS

Is the Way Clarksville Put It
 To Us.

Local Series of Three Games Began Yesterday Afternoon.

Clarksville ran over Hopkinsville
 Monday rough-shod, taking the first game of the series by 11 to 1. Pettier, who was in the pitch, went to sleep and the team went to the park without waking him and he did not show up. Morris was the only pitcher on hand not otherwise engaged and he was put in the box
 the second day in succession. The Clarksville batters made hit after hit and two home runs, until it was too one-sided to be interesting.
 Moore was the only Brown who scored.

Tuesday's game was better but went the same way. Pettier pitched and held Clarksville down to four hits, but six errors in his support did the work and brought defeat by 2 to 1. The game should have been won, but the result was the natural sequence to the bunch of errors six times as great as the single error charged to Clarksville.

The third game at Clarksville Wednesday was lost by 7 to 3, the pitchers being Harris and Ferrell.
 Clarksville made 12 hits and 3 errors and Hopkinsville 7 hits and 3 errors. Violet was umpire and came to this city with the home team.

The first of the three games to be played with Clarksville on the local diamond was played yesterday, with Alexander in the box. Today and tomorrow the other games of the series will be played. Clark-ville is playing very fast ball and while two of their recent victories were won by close margins they have taken three straight games from us. In the last series they won 4 out of 6 games.

The three games this week have resulted in unbroken victories for Clarksville, Paducah and Cairo.
 At Cairo, the local team defeated
 Henderson three times, the Wednesday game by 6 to 2.

At Paducah, Vincennes met the same fate, the last game by 8 to 2.

Standing of Clubs to Aug. 24.

Paducah	101	55	46	554

On the Fly.

Dr. W. I. Thompson, president of the league, was in town Tuesday.
 He said the K. L. T. was in fine shape to finish the season, which will end Sept. 14. Next year two more clubs will be admitted. Dr.
 Thompson stated that he had appointed Wm. M. Hancock, of this city, Secretary of the League, to succeed M. J. Farnbaker, of Cairo, removed. He said Mr. Farnbaker failed to resign when given the opportunity and the League declared his office vacant at Paducah and authorized him to fill the vacancy. Mr. Hancock has been vice president of the club and is a good man for secretary.

Hopkinsville has signed two new
 men. One of them, popular Smiley Anderson, Clarksville's crack hitter, missed his train yesterday
 and will not report until tomorrow.
 The other is Catcher James who was recently released by Cark-ville.

Pembroke played Thomas' All Stars Wednesday and an Elktion
 team yesterday.

Maeder's error in dropping a ball at Clarksville Tuesday lost the game and prevented a shut out for Clarksville by a score of 1 to 0.
 The 2 scores made did the work.
 Charles Bomar, of Eagleview, Tenn., Hopkinsville's best all-round man, has been sold to George Te-beau, President of the Louisville
 American Association Club, for $300.
 He is to report Sept. 1. Bomar is one of the best pitchers in the K. L.

 T. league and also plays good shortstop and outfield, and is at times a hard hitter and runs well on bases. He has been partially disabled with a sprained arm for several days.

Clarksville is expected to send over a lot of routers today and tomorrow. Their last experience, may be repeated.

Violet, the new umpire, appeared yesterday for the first time on the local diamond. He is said to be a good, capable and impartial umpire.

The steady line of defeats the Browns encountered at Clarksville kept the local fans from going over to see them punished the first of the week.

As we have before remarked,
 booze fighters cannot play errorless
 ball.

NEW HOMES

Being Built By Four Prominent Citizens.

Hon. Jas. B. Garnett, of Cadiz, has secured plans from J. L. Long for the remodeling of his residence in Cadiz. It will be handsomely finished with oak, maple and mahogany and will contain all modern improvements. It will be, in all respects, an up-to-date house.

The Forbes Manufacturing Company has contracted with Mr. A.
 J. Casey for the erection of a handsome two-story colonial residence on South Main street, on a lot purchased from Dr. Saigent, adjoining Mr. J. D. Russell's lot on the south side. The house will be frame, with hardwood finish, cabinet mantels, tile hearths and modern improvements. Work has already been begun on the foundation.

Mr. L. Yonts is preparing to erect on the Gooch property on North Main street, corner of Fourth,
 a fine pressed brick veneered two-story dwelling house. J. L. Long has the plans and it will have heavy stone foundation, hard wood finish, slate roof and all improvements, including steam heat.

Mr. Gabe Payne's new home on East Seventh street, next to Mrs.
 W. A. Faxon's residence, is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy in a few days. It will be quite a handsome home.

NAMES SUBMITTED

To the State Election Commission at Frankfort.

Chairman James West this week sent to the State Election Board the following list of names from which a county commissioner will be selected:

L. C. Cravens, Geo. E. Gary, H.
 Wood, Jr., J. G. Childress and J. C.
 Duffy. Mr. Cravens was the commissioner for 1903 and Mr. Duffy for 1902. The other three are members of the county committee.

DAMAGE SUIT

Filed by Pembroke Plan Against the L. & N.

H. W. Deason, of Pembroke, has sued the Louisville and Nashville railroad for $5,000. He alleges that he was jerked from his feet by a lurch of the train at the depot in this city while he was in the act of descending the steps. He says his right shoulder was dislocated and he was otherwise injured. The accident occurred April 30, 1904.

STRICKEN BLIND.

While Sitting in His Office Talking to One of His Friends.

Judge J. M. Fisher is lying in a critical condition at his home from the effect of a slight paralytic stroke received Saturday. He was sitting in his office transacting business when he was suddenly stricken blind. He was partly unconscious and without use of his vision for several hours. He finally rallied somewhat, but is still in a very critical condition. Mr. Fisher is the county judge of Marshall county and one of the most popular men in the county. He has many friends here who will regret to learn of his unfortunate condition.—Register.

cannot keep from growing. And gradually all the dark, rich color of early life comes back to gray hair.

When I first used Ayer's Hair Vigor my hair was about all that was left of my youth. It was thin, and as thin as I could wish. Now, after using it for several months, it is growing again, and is as thick and as black as when I was young.

ON THURSDAY

Bethel Female College Will Begin Fall Session.

On Thursday Sept. 1, Bethel Female College will open the fall session. The citizens of Hopkinsville are invited by Dr. Harrison to avail themselves of the superior facilities offered for the thorough training of their daughters. There are tried and accomplished teachers in every department, who give personal attention to each pupil's needs and purposes.

As heretofore the music department, under Miss Elizabeth Jones, (N. E. Conservatory, Boston), as directress, offers advantages surpassed by no institution. Miss Mary Susong, a graduate of the University of Kentucky, has charge of elocution and physical culture. Miss Lizzie Lou Alexander, Southwestern Baptist University, will teach English, History, French and German.

Miss Margaret W. Goode, University of Virginia and other institutions, will teach Mathematics and Natural Sciences.

Miss Kate Harrison will again have charge of the Primary Department, and other departments will be in charge of capable and experienced teachers.

Miss Alice Roycroft will be house keeper this year and will look to the comforts of the boarding pupils. The session will begin on Thursday, allowing two days for classification and preparations for the regular work of the session, which has heretofore begun the first Monday in September.

Stove Demonstration.

Mr. J. E. Dye, State Agent of Buck's Stove and Range Co., of St. Louis, will on Sept. 20, give a demonstration of the worth of his stoves, at Geo. W. Young's store. Mr. Young is the local agent for this line of goods.

To the Public.

About two years ago a new grocery store opened up in the Odd Fellows building, under the name of M. E. Edmundson, with the choicest groceries, fruits and vegetables. We have been able, by liberal patronage of appreciative customers to make both ends meet. To them we return our sincere thanks and promise to do our very best in the future to retain their confidence.

The permanent success of any business depends upon the confidence and good opinion of the public. No business can succeed that makes dissatisfied customers. We work and plan to have all goods that we sell give absolute satisfaction in quality and price.

Now, just a word to those who have promised us at least a share of our country trade. We have been somewhat disappointed in not having the pleasure of adding your names to our list of customers, we are still anxious to secure your grocery patronage. "This true our stock is small, but it is always good and is kept clean and up-to-date, because we order fresh groceries every week to replace reduced stock. Come in and inspect our goods and our mode of doing business, and if you are satisfied we will certainly appreciate your patronage."

We also extend a cordial invitation to our country friends, many of whom perhaps will learn of us for the first time, on seeing this advertisement that we are in the grocery business. Give us a trial order and we will guarantee to please you.

Fair prices, pure groceries, courteous treatment, straight-forward dealing and prompt delivery is the plan we have adopted for this store. Phone us—either phone—and we will gladly supply your wants. Respectfully,

M. E. EDMUNDSON.

STOESSEL'S DEFENSE

Of Port Arthur One of the Most Heroic on Record.

Japanese Losses Are Concealed But Seize Bloodiest Since Sedan.

Tokio, Aug. 25.—Hundreds of Japanese guns are still pouring a deadly fire into Port Arthur, and dispatches from Japanese sources say the Russian lines have been weakened and that the entire line of defense immediately about the harbor is within range of the guns of the Mikado's attacking forces. A number of Russian forts and batteries continue to be vigorous, and the death roll will be heavily increased before they are captured. The Japanese are supremely confident of the result, and the people of Tokio are decorating the houses and streets in preparation for a national celebration of the expected victory. It is believed here that both sides have suffered heavily and that the final record will make the siege the bloodiest since Sedan.

St. Petersburg, August 24.—In spite of the anxiety which is felt regarding the fate of Port Arthur the War Office and the Admiralty were practically closed to day on account of the christening of the royal infant, and no official dispatches were given out.

So far as can be ascertained, no further news of the progress of the fighting before the beleaguered fortress has been received.

Reports that Gen Kuropatkin is about to make an important move continue to be circulated, but the character of the move is not hinted at.

As the reports from the front agree that the rains have ceased and that the roads are drying, a resumption of military activity is expected.

Since his retirement from Simsbury and the Yangtze River, it is estimated that more than 35,000 reinforcements have reached Gen Kuropatkin.

Nothing has been received from Russian sources confirming the report that the battleship Sevastopol struck a mine outside Port Arthur yesterday.

VICTORIOUS JAPS

Carry the War Into Russian Waters and Sink the Novik.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The State Department today received the following cablegram from Minister Griescom at Tokio: "Japanese fleet sunk Novik off Sakhalin today."

"The following details of the attack on the Novik have been received at the Japanese legation:

"The captain of the cruiser Onizuka reports that the Chinese and the protected cruiser Tsuchima attacked the Russian cruiser Novik at Karakosov, Sakhalin Island, on the morning of the 20th. On the morning of the 21st, the Novik, which had been heavily damaged, was stranded and partly sunk. The Tsuchima was hit once in the coal bunker, but the damage has been repaired. There was no other damage, nor was there a single casualty on either of the Japanese vessels."

The Novik was one of the Russian fleet that steamed out from Port Arthur on the morning of Aug. 19, to force its way through the Japanese lines. She entered Taigtau the night of Aug. 41, got away from there the night of Aug. 12, having remained less than twenty-four hours. She was then erroneously reported to have been sunk forty miles from Taigtau.

Korakovski is a port on the southern coast of Sakhalin, off the coast of Siberia and about 550 miles northeast of Vladivostok. The city was bombarded afterwards for two hours by the Japanese and several government buildings destroyed.

BROKE HIS ARM.

Mr. Frank M. Quarles Seriously Hurt By a Fall

Mr. Frank M. Quarles was badly hurt Wednesday afternoon by falling from a peach tree, from which he was gathering fruit, on a farm two miles east of town.

A limb broke and he was precipitated head-first into the ground, a distance of ten feet. He caught at a limb with his right hand, and only broke the force of the fall, at the same time breaking his left wrist. He fell on his face, cutting a deep gash on his forehead, mashing his nose and almost biting his tongue in two. He was rendered unconscious by the fall, which broke the neck of the limb, and he was taken to his house. Dr. F. P. Thomas was passing the gate and was called to just in time to render prompt surgical aid. His injuries, while very painful, are not dangerous. Mr. Quarles is President of the Board of Commissioners of the Western Argyle and one of the leading citizens of the county.

The second annual tournament of the Hopkinsville Gun Club was opened at Cerulean yesterday, in a field in the rear of the hotel. Among the marksmen present were: S. H. Page, Ekton; W. G. Dalton, Dr. A. E. Cadden, Earlington; Andy Meadows, Nashville; J. P. Genry Hillman, Birmingham; A. B. Brady, Newbern, Tenn.; Lee Moody, Bessemer, Ala.; Harold Moore, Colorado Springs, Colo.; Dr. R. L. Woodard, Guy Starling, E. Moss, C. O. Prowse, Hopkinsville; A. B. Mercer, Paducah; John Jones, Edinville; Dr. W. L. Hansbrough, Paducah; T. A. Nall, Kuttawa, Ky.

GAGE WAS READY TO FIGHT Late Secretary of the Treasury Was in the Mood to "Mix Up" with Anybody.

When Lyman J. Gage was secretary of the treasury he once gave evidence of his democratic willingness to forego the dignity of his office and engage in a "scrap." The incident occurred in Philadelphia, relates the New York Times, when the secretary was presiding at the auction sale of the old government mint in that city.

The room in the historic building was crowded to the doors, but the bidding was so low and so slow that the sale had become almost a subject for joking. Two millions had been set as the knock-down price, and it was rapidly becoming evident that no such figure was going to be reached.

During a moment's lull, some one in the crowd made a loud comment upon the administration's relations with Wall street, suggesting that a mistake had been made in not selling the mint there, and reflecting directly upon Mr. Gage himself. The secretary turned in the direction of the voice and answered: "You're a liar." The tone was as firm as it was quiet, and the brief conversation ended right there.

Later in the day, during a luncheon at the Union League, a gentleman seated next to Mr. Gage half-jokingly inquired what the secretary would have done if the man had answered back and invited trouble. "Well, if he really wanted trouble," was the reply, "I was perfectly willing to satisfy him then and there."

Automobile Consumption Cure.

Motor-car exercise will cure consumption, says Dr. Blanchet, of Lyons. He speaks from personal experience, having recovered his own health by regularly covering a hundred miles a day in an open motor car. He avers that by this remedy the cough of tuberculosis patients is gradually abolished or greatly diminished, and healthy sleep and appetite produced. It is most essential that the body should be duly protected from cold. The elements of the cure are the long stay in the open air and the increased atmospheric pressure due to the rapid motion, which expands and strengthens the lungs.—London Mail.

STANDING STONE.

Historic Relic Now Preserved By the Red Men.

More About Beautiful Monterey In The Mountains of Tennessee.

Before the picturesque village of Monterey was created, the only communication between the mountaineers and the busy world was a post office, its name "Standing Stone" being of peculiar interest as it was taken from a tall, shaft-like rock or stone, rising straight out of the mountain, just a short walk back of Hotel Cumberland. This shaft towering heavenward, outlined by the mountains over the valley losing themselves in the purple mist, served as the dividing line between the northern and southern Indians, and was engraved by an unknown Indian tribe before the white man set foot on Tennessee soil to drive away the race to which he had given himself. This stone has been demolished by relic hunters so fast that had not the Red Men come to its rescue it would have been seen by the world to tell the tale, as it had been snatched and chiseled off so that it might show its former height and shape. The Red Men had it mounted on a pedestal and moved from where it stood, and placed in the park—Walton's road, now a street in Monterey. This road is historic from Andrew Jackson's having traveled over on his way to and from Washington, and was one of the first roads cut through the Tennessee mountains.

In this beautiful land, dyed in a splendor of ever-shifting colors, the old customs and manners of the mountaineers still linger, though a deluge of strangers has begun to set in towards their retreat with the coming of the railroad and the spirit of machinery threatening to invade. It is sad to imagine the passing of the rustic dignity and steady repose of these people when they come in contact with the world teeming with life and restless energy.

In company with Mrs. Miller, I called on Mr. Jack Whitaker, "Uncle Jack" as he is called by his friends and acquaintances. He it was who kept the post office, in his mountain home when Standing Stone stood where it had grown, just across the road opposite his cottage. Uncle Jack is noted for something else besides being the postmaster of Standing Stone. He is a brother of the noted Whittaker, of "moonshine whisky" fame. I went down under the great cliffs, following a winding trail. All around me were rocks covered with leathery ferns of every shade of greenness, a labyrinth of cliffs losing themselves in the mountains, full of deep, sad shadows, and just the place for outwitting the Government. There I saw the still, just as the last moonshiner had left it. The wonder to me is how the officers of the law ever found it. A false friend, one who had been as a brother, betrayed them, and for his poison he is a "grave friend," as Mercutio said.

Mr. Whitaker sat on the front porch of his cottage his chair comfortably tilted back against the house, but rose with much dignity and repose of manner to invite us in. It was enough to insure me a hearty welcome to be accompanied by Mrs. Miller, who is called the "mountain missionary" so kind is she to all who need assistance, and under the glad smile that covered Mrs. Whitaker's face when she came forward to invite her in, one could readily see how happy she was to have us. The time would fail me to describe this visit and the most picturesque and sanctified looking village, but all the cottages of the mountaineers look alike with their overhanging roofs. This is not true of the thrifty village of Monterey everything is new and up to date, two drug stores, a handsome bank, and it is such a well conducted place and the country around so peaceful that one lawyer is all that is needed to keep them straight. There can be but on side to any question. Besides all this Monterey has its "Lord." It is a very "Paradise" with its infinitely varied mountains, its gorge where rocks look like great slabs of onyx.

island with opals, its cascade falling to the depths below, its Chalybeate springs, its ravine full of enchantments, its noted Cumberland where all is joy, peace and comfort. No wonder that it has its Lord.

Mr. Hobart D. Lord, a jeweler, has done more towards enlightening the community in which he lives in geology, than any real professor could ever have done. Since he settled in Monterey his pursuit of hidden treasure has grown into a fad. His collection of curios found on the mountains around him fill a room and are arranged upon shelf after shelf. Always obliging, Mr. Lord will stand hours talking down his carefully arranged and labeled curios, explaining each article, telling where he found it. By showing his finds to the people who drop in, he has interested the neighborhood around Monterey and many have brought him rare petrified relics, they ploughed up or dug up and cast aside, not dreaming they were anything more than curious rocks. Mr. Lord has deep sea products, fish, snails, stones, roots, and sea tools such as are found only in the sea, all petrified and in perfect shape and form; bananas, one with the peeling in one side like teeth of mounds, but others, and teeth of humans; turtles as perfect as they were before they were turned to stone. Indian relics of all kinds, arrow points, Mr. Lord says he has been told by geologists that they have never seen such arrow points before as he has in his collection. Mr. Lord was asked what he thought was the chief property nature used in preserving the relics he has found so perfectly. His answer was "silica." Said all his curios were found in silica beds. Miss Dalsheimer in her article on Mr. Lord's curios in the Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle says, "It proves that these mountains were once under the sea." And the tropical fruits found also prove that it was once a tropical country. As for me, I do not know. I only wish what I have seen and make no original remarks. Mr. Lord's collections are without money and without price. He charges nothing to show them, and would not sell one tooth of an alligator for a gold brick.

There were so many lovely and interesting guests at Hotel Cumberland during my visit it is impossible for me to distinguish them. There was a game of progressive whist and euchre played in the evening, while lawn tennis and tennis kept the more energetic busy during the day. Dancing was not included in the amusements this season on account of interfering with the rest of invalids. They now have an infirmary in a short distance of the hotel run by two sisters that are trained nurses and I imagine next season the real invalids will go there, and the young ladies and gentlemen can dance galore.

Masses heard from Lebanon delighted the guests with music from piano and violin until exaltation is the only word which will describe our sentiments when we listened. Miss Mary E. Williams of Nashville, lovely in all things, sang to us with our spirits floating to the nearby gates.

Mr. Charles Port of Adams, was surrounded at all times by ladies young and ladies old, by widows thin and widows plump.

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

F. Y. FITZPATRICK, M. C.

Hon. F. Y. Fitzpatrick, Congressman from Kentucky, writes from the National Hotel, Washington, D. C., as follows: "At the solicitation of a friend I used your Pe-ru-na and can cheerfully recommend your remedy to anyone suffering with catarrh or who needs a good tonic."

—F. Y. FITZPATRICK. Pe-ru-na is the remedy for catarrh. Almost everybody knows that by heresy and dishonesty know it by experience. What an interest in the beginning of a week's daily use of Pe-ru-na, if allowed to be known, may require months of tedious treatment. You had better take Pe-ru-na now, by and by you may be obliged to take it for some time in order to get well. Now the warm, dry weather will assist in your cure. You are not able to catch fresh cold and delay your cure.

Pe-ru-na is a natural, healthy and prompt remedy for catarrh of the United States and foreign.

As a gentle remedy, it relieves such conditions as indigestion, constipation, and other ailments.

If you find any other remedy and satisfaction results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write to Dr. J. C. Williams, a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Ceylon Has Rare Exhibit

"The Eden of Eastern Wave" Well Represented at the St. Louis Exposition.

One of the most picturesque pavilions in the World's Fair grounds is that erected by the government of Ceylon. Externally, it is a reproduction of the famous Buddhist "Temple of the Tooth," at Kandy, in the center of the island, where a traditional relic of the great oriental teacher has been enshrined for many hundreds of years and to this day draws devotees from all parts of Asia. Internally, the building is adapted for a display of Ceylon's commercial products, artistic manufactures, and ethnological and archaeological curios.

The broad and cool verandas are a favorite place of resort, for here fragrant tea is served by deft-gingered and softly-moving Cingalese waiters, garbed in their picturesque native costume—white robe, crimson sash, and tortoise-shell comb to confine the long flowing tresses. But the slightest rest and refreshed, should not depart without a visit to the upper story of the building, where they will find himself transported to the orient, surrounded by objects of rare beauty and fascinating interest, wandering for a spell in the beautiful tale, and has been so aptly named "The Eden of the Eastern Wave."

FAMILY OF NEGROES AT HOME

But, after all, the Ceylon to which most of us are concerned is the white man's Ceylon—the country where tea is produced by the hundred million pounds and forms the basis of a thriving and world-wide commerce. And yet even in the history of the tea trade there is romance—the romance that lies in the display of human spirit in the wrestle of fortune from direct ruin and disaster. A generation ago Ceylon was a land of coffee and of prosperous coffee planters. But a fungus blight swept over the gardens, and in an incredibly short time almost wiped out the industry. Cinchona, or quinine, was tried as a substitute, and for a time proved profitable, but soon over-supply made this product a "drug in the market" in the metaphorical as well as in the literal meaning of the phrase. Then the tea plant was introduced from Assam and Darjeeling in northeastern India, and so soon as it gave evidence of thriving the cultivation was promptly extended, not in their own particular industries, have not yet found uses for each and every by-product. In American packing houses it is a proverbial saying that everything is saved except the squeal of the sacrificial porter.

But the coconut palm in Ceylon is made to yield quite as full a profit. The leaves of the palm are used for roofing, the ribs of the leaves for brooms, the coarse outer fiber of the nut for matting and cordage, the finer inner fiber for the stuffing of mattresses. The flesh of the nut supplies a natural food, and, desiccated and shredded, a flavoring for confectionery; its milk is a delicious fresh beverage, its extracted oil forms a valuable material for soap and candle making; the residuum from the oil press goes to the fattening of cattle, while the refined oil makes an excellent substitute for lard for cooking purposes, and the refined lard a delicious butter for table use. The today, or milk drawn from the tree stem, is distilled into arrack, a potent spirit, or turned into vinegar; its sugar, obtained by evaporation, forms a sweetmeat; the bud or "cabbage" at the apex of the stem makes an excellent vegetable, and is often pickled; the best of the shells are carved for ornament, or converted into cooking utensils, while the others are burned as fuel; even the blossom in its long sheath is utilized as a torch; the trunk furnishes rafters, beams, troughs, canoes merely over the old coffee estates, but at far higher elevations where the more delicate coffee shrub could not grow. Although many planters went down in the period of financial stress, the survivors found themselves in the end with bettered prospects. So rapid has been the advance of Ceylon tea that now the little island, just two-thirds the size of Ireland, produces over 150,000,000 pounds annually, and China has found herself virtually ousted from many of her old markets.

But Ceylon, with far-seeing and enterprising men engaged in her staple industry, is over on the outlook for new customers.

Tea, however, is by no means the only commercial product of Ceylon. Cocoa, spices in great variety (notably cinnamon, clove and cardamoms), vegetable oils, drugs, tanning bark,

LITTLE WOMEN.

Nature dates womanhood from the period when the womanly function is first established, so that nature's little women are school-girls, shop-girls, etc. And therein lies a danger. This period is one of the most important in a woman's life, the mental effort of study, the physical effort of labor, are doubly exhausting at this season, and coupled with neglect or ignorance are often responsible for irregularity and other womanly ailments.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription may be relied upon to carry the woman safely through this period, as it does through maternity and the later change of life. This great medicine establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail," writes Mrs. Dan Hall of Brookfield, Green Co., Wis. "Everything that could be thought of was done to help her, but it was of no use. She kept failing and I gave up, thinking she must die. I must say, Doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

WOMEN CLERKS IN GERMANY

In Spite of Conservatism There Has Been Steady Progress Made by the Sex.

Women have become an indispensable factor in the German postal telegraph and telephone service, it seems, in spite of the conservatism which prevented the utilization of feminine activities in public work in Germany until nearly half a century later than in France and England. United States Consul Monaghan, of Chemnitz, in a recent communication to the United States department of commerce and labor, reviews briefly the conditions and requirements which are of interest as showing the progress of women in the fatherland.

It is not every woman who can obtain a position in the German postal service, so strict are the government regulations respecting age, character, education and health. A government medical examiner pronounces upon the health, which must be perfect; the age must not exceed 30 or be under 18, and a good common school education is a primary requisite. Possessing all these qualifications, the woman candidate is eligible only to a position as assistant in the post office, and the highest salary she can hope for is $119 a year. In the telegraph and telephone service, however, all grades of positions are open to women, and the rules of admission are usually strict, and no woman with children are employed. These women are now employed in the telephone service, and the woman employee, it is stated, 100 of them being in Berlin. The hours are light, ranging from 6 to 8 or 10 hours a day.

"The highest pay which a woman can draw in German telephone offices is $170, which is said to afford a comfortable living in Germany, but is a low wage compared to that to be obtained in England where experienced telephone clerks get $100 and chief operators are paid as high as $250. In many, however, it must be noted that women on their withdrawal from active labor after 40 prescribed number of years of faithful work are awarded a government pension on the same basis with the men.

LONG-HORNED CATTLE GONE

Once So Common in Texas Disappeared by Stock of Greater Value.

There was a time when the "Texas steer" bred of cattle owned by grazing grounds of the southwest. They were the descendants of the long horned cattle which the early Spanish explorers and adventurers brought from their homes across the seas. Hundreds of thousands of them roamed the unfenced pastures, bearing little more than a small tuft of hair and tail to the tip of a revolver from his coat pocket while he was bargaining with a fur merchant. The latter pointed him out to a detective, and "Solomon II" was arrested and bound like a dangerous wild beast.

The preliminary examination he confessed to a long series of robberies, the proceeds of which he appears to have dispensed largely in assisting the poor and the outcast. He denied any murders, however, professes penitence, and intimates his anxiety to expiate his misdeeds in the prayerful seclusion of a monastery.

Speed of Elevators.
Without swift and safe elevators a modern office building of 15 or 20 stories would be nearly useless for business purposes as the Washington monument or the pyramid of Cheops. Some rapid elevators give nervous persons the impression that they are moving with the velocity of a railway train. In truth, however, the highest practical speed for a fast elevator is now set by a writer in the Architectural Record to be 450 feet per minute, and for an express elevator 600 to 700 feet per minute. In a very tall building a greater speed is possible than in one of less height.

Another Bump for Genius.
"Whatever I do," said the quaint amateur poet, "I do it with my whole soul."
"Yes," his wife sadly replied, "I know you do, but it would be such a help if you'd give it up and do things with your hands."—Chicago Record-Herald.

COUNTERFEIT WORKS OF ART

Making of Bogus Antiques Has Become Quite an Industry in Italy.

William Le Quenx notes an amazing growth in Italy of the manufacture of counterfeit antiques, reports an exchange.

He says he has stood in the studio of an Italian sculptor and seen "ages" given to marble by a newly discovered process which in 12 hours will give to a statue 500 times its true value. The greater part of this output is said to be shipped to New York.

According to Mr. Le Quenx, the largest profit is, however, made on arms and pictures. The armory where the greater part of the "ancient" arms sold by dealers in Italy is forged is in a back street in Leghorn. Here in a couple of tumble-down old blacksmith shops every conceivable kind of armor is made, from the fourteenth century helmet or breastplate to "ancient" gamboles, halberds, swords and daggers.

"I have watched these wondrous being stamped with the marks of monograms of the well-known Spanish armors of the sixteenth century," writes Mr. Le Quenx, "the coronet in a shield of Dominico, the crossed scissars of Sancho, the half moon of Juan Martin, the star of Giliberto. All run together with good solid Latin inscriptions or owners' names with dates. I have stood by and seen how the steel is treated with acids, how the bronze is painted with some solution to render them old and how they are passed in troughs of damp sand to imitate rust and patina before being sold to the dealers at so much a dozen as sorted."

DICK TURPIN IN RUSSIA.

Student Who Turned Highwayman and Gave Stolen Money to the Poor.

"Solomon II, by the grace of God king of the Jews." This was the way in which a very remarkable prisoner recently signed the prison book at Kiev, Russia, says the London Mail.

His history is curious. He was a handsome, hard-working student of Kiev seminary, but on finishing his course, he immediately provided himself with a revolver, dagger and a number of forged papers and passes, and began a career of robbery and brigandage which was marked throughout by consummate skill and forethought.

He murdered and stole on the highway, his victims in Kiev including a staff captain and a master of the watch. At his richly furnished apartments in Kiev he dispensed lavish hospitality to a circle of most respectable friends, who never suspected the source of his wealth.

His capture was brought about by the accidental production of a revolver from his coat pocket while he was bargaining with a fur merchant. The latter pointed him out to a detective, and "Solomon II" was arrested and bound like a dangerous wild beast.

The preliminary examination he confessed to a long series of robberies, the proceeds of which he appears to have dispensed largely in assisting the poor and the outcast. He denied any murders, however, professes penitence, and intimates his anxiety to expiate his misdeeds in the prayerful seclusion of a monastery.

Arthur White Has Not Reached Eagle Mills.

Plan Heard From to Whom He Said He Would Go.

Mr. L. M. Armstrong is in receipt of a telegram from Jim Minor, at Eagle Mills, Ark., saying that Arthur White, the son of S. J. S. White, of this county, who disappeared August 8, had not been heard from in any way. The boy told a friend here before his disappearance that he intended to go to where Jim Minor lived. This disposes of another hope the anxious parents of the boy entertained. It may be that he is working his way towards Eagle Mills, by slow stages, or that he concluded to go to some other place. Mr. Armstrong is one of Mr. White's friends who still believes that the boy has been foully dealt with.
